

Trade

Use investigative skills to determine different items and their purpose from each period of time.

Investigate a copralite to decipher what the diet of prehistoric people was. How did their diet change when agriculture was introduced?

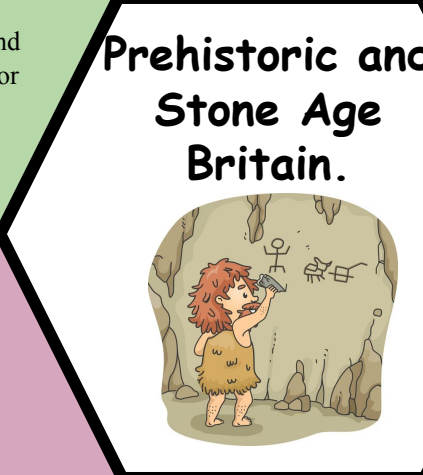

Monarchy

How do Historians know and understand what happened millions of years ago?

Significant people and events

Children to research Louis and Mary Leakey. Hot seat the characters to understand why their discoveries were important.

Investigate the Red Lady of Paviliand. Children to use photographs to decipher who they were and why they were buried.

Prehistoric and Stone Age Britain.

Settlement

Compare the different settlements of Stone Age, Bronze and Iron Age.

Investigate how Stonehenge was constructed and what was its purpose?

Empire

Children to understand the chronology of the Stone Age to the Iron Age and the developments and significance of each era.

Children to look at artefacts and discuss what they were used for and made out of,

Democracy